

I am against the deregulation of media. The more large corporations would be allowed to take over a vast majority of media outlets of all types will mean the end to a free press and a disaster for arts in the media. We are seeing this happen already. Please don't let it continue.